VISTA ALEGRE

SPIRIT HOTEL

"First and foremost, the look and quality of the Vista Alegre line is comparative to other expensive name brands. While it's harder and harder to make money in this business, we as operators can manage our bottom line better. The value is very competitive, making it a simple choice. It's easy to construct my food on great looking dinnerware. I don't have to work as hard to make the food attractive when using Vista Alegre. The plate helps me achieve this."

A white ceramic cup filled with a dark brown liquid, likely tea, sits on a matching white saucer. The cup has a subtle, horizontal ribbed texture. On the saucer, next to the cup, are two brown sugar cubes and a small garnish of a lemon wedge and a sprig of mint. In the background, slightly out of focus, is a white bowl filled with a variety of fresh berries, including raspberries, blueberries, and blackberries, along with slices of kiwi. The entire scene is set against a dark, textured background.

Arcata®

The background of the advertisement features a variety of Arcata cast iron cookware. In the center, a white enamel-coated pot with a black interior and a black lid is open. To its right, a black rectangular baking dish is filled with a vibrant orange soup or stew, garnished with sliced green and red peppers. In the foreground, a red enamel-coated pot is filled with a golden-brown lattice pie. The bottom right corner shows a portion of a red lid with a decorative embossed pattern. The entire scene is set on a dark, textured surface, with wooden cutting boards used as serving platforms for some of the items.

Serve colorful soups, stews and slow-cook dishes with Arcata's cast iron pieces. Transporting a guest to an earlier era, the enamel coated miniature casseroles add a flair of originality to your tabletop. Casseroles may be used with their coordinating wood boards to serve sharable sides.
