"When ordering new dinnerware for the re-launch of our traditional, historic restaurant, I needed to find a dinnerware that was classic yet slightly modern. After looking at everything on the market, the Venu collection fit the bill perfectly. This line has seamlessly brought an old school dining room into the modern age. Also, the particular "white" of the collection elevates the Big 4 dining experience."

"The simplicity of this line was the first factor in considering Tria. It is a good quality product at a very good price. In addition, the willingness and enthusiasm of our TriMark Sales Rep to bring us samples for our chefs to try the product was a big factor in choosing Tria. It is lightweight and works very well for Room Service. Tria has simple clean lines, and it represents very good value for the money."

"I found that the Crystalex Swing glassware is an excellent quality and nice presentation. With its nice clean cut, the collection looks very strong in our banquet events. We have less breakage due to the resistance on the glassware and that is a product that we'll keep using on our property. Overall, the collection looks great on our tables."
